Nursing Home Administrator

New Jersey State Requirements

The education required for a nursing home administrator includes a minimum of a bachelor's degree. TTI offers a Bachelor of Arts degree through Woodmont College for students wanting to fulfill the New Jersey State requirement.

New Jersey Requirements

The New Jersey Board of Nursing Home Examiners requires that nursing home administrators be licensed. The NJ requirement is a bachelor's degree, completion of 100 hours of continuing education in coursework relevant to the administration of Skilled Nursing Facilities and an internship. One can begin the internship while earning a degree. Certification course work can be taken while earning a degree.

For more information about NJ requirements go to:
https://www.state.nj.us/health/healthfacilities/certification-licensing/nursing-home-adm/

Fast Facts

- Degree: Earn a bachelor's degree with TTI or from any accredited college. AARTS degree is also accepted.
- Continuing Education: Complete 100-hours of continuing education in coursework relevant to the administration. We recommend taking these courses through www.longtreeeducation.com
- Internship: Serve as an administrator in training or as an assistant in a skilled nursing facility with an approved administer training program.
- Exam: Pass the Federal nursing home administrator licensing exam
- Total cost with BA through TTI: $9,500- $10,500 (Based on previously earned college credits)

Why TTI?

- TTI offers a Bachelor of Arts degree
- TTI will direct you on where to earn your 100-hours of continuing education.

Important Dates

- Registration deadline: Ongoing
- Program start date: Ongoing

How to Begin

- Call TTI 877-RING-TTI