Speech Language Pathology

University of Cincinnati

TTI, in conjunction with The University of Cincinnati, has arranged a program to enable students to obtain their Master's Degree in Speech Language Pathology and the Certificate of Clinical Competence in Speech-Language Pathology (CCC- SLP) of the America Speech-Language and Hearing Association (ASHA).

Students complete a Bachelor of Arts through Woodmont College which includes the speech prerequisite courses through University of Cincinnati, and then they go directly onto a master's degree in SLP with University of Cincinnati. Upon acceptance , students will receive dual admission to the bachelor prerequisite program and graduate program. They only have to apply once to UC for the dual admission program. The students who are accepted into this dual admission program will receive a $7,500 scholarship at the Masters Degree level ($1,500 over 5 semesters)

Prerequisite BA Classes

There are 12 prerequisite courses that students must take before entering the fall semester of the graduate program. A grade of B or above is required for all courses with an asterisk:

Phonetics*; Anatomy and Physiology of Voice and Speech Production*; Audiology*; Neurological Foundations*; Speech and Language Development*; Clinical Process or Specific Communication Disorders Course*; Research Methods*; Human Development across the Lifespan*; Physical Science (preferably physics or chemistry); Biological science; Social Science; and Statistics.

These classes are offered via an online model and zoom Sunday classes.

Prerequisite Academic Preparation

University of Cincinnati runs on a semester system. The length of each semester is 15-16 weeks. Below are all the CSD courses for the prerequisite program.
